For the record

Founded by four boys and a girl (from various local bands such as Beautiful Lunar Landscape, In Veins or Novlang...) in 2012 around the Bordeaux city area, The Lost Meridian draws its musical path from the roots of the British 90's/2000's scene playing around Archive, Morcheeba or The XX.

After spending about 2 years to find its own artistical figure, the band recorded a first EP called 'Useless Anger' released in 2015.

Some gigs later, The Lost Meridian began to write new song before getting back in studio to record a second EP 'Incomplete Puzzle' which will see the light this fall.

For fans of Archive, Cocorosie, Morcheeba, Portishead...
